Join the Double Drummer team for the Corporate Games

Sole traders and small businesses can now get in on the NSW Corporate Games thanks to Double Drummer, THE online social networking site for active people.

If you'd like to participate in the NSW Corporate Games but don't have enough interested work colleagues or perhaps you work for yourself; then join the Double Drummer team to be part of the action.

Double Drummer will be fielding its own sports teams to raise money for Diabetes Australia-NSW and in turn compete against 8,500 others who will be playing for major companies such as AMP, Telstra, Optus, ANZ, ING and their counterparts in Sydney this March.

Join Double Drummer Ambassadors including Olympian Elka Graham, former AFL Hawthorn Hawk, Mark Bunn and possibly '70s Davis Cup player Bob Giltinan as the DD team gets active across 20 different sports at the NSW Corporate Games.

Double Drummer is a unique online portal for those seeking active lifestyle partners for tennis, cricket, running, sailing, pilates, inline skating – in fact, any of over 580 sports and activities. The web site is designed to connect lovers of sport and the great outdoors around Australia.

Most sports and activities are listed online and locals register for various locations around Australia. Simply visit the www.doubledrummer.com.au web site, choose your activity, level of competence, age and gender (if required) and location, then find fellow Double Drummers ready to play. If you're looking for a coach, a tournament, a marathon, sports stores, clubs, trainers and even medical and holistic health professionals, Double Drummer will have all the information required at the click of a mouse.

Double Drummer is all about social connection through playing sport or participating in an active experience. It's not about spending hours in front of a computer screen seeking artificial interaction. Joining a Double Drummer team for the NSW Corporate Games means members can extend their live social circle and network while getting active and helping a good cause.

Stand by for Queensland and Victoria Corporate Games Double Drummer teams in May and November.
